Just 2 minutes from Liverpool's business district and within walking distance of Princes Dock and The Pier Head, this is a hidden gem tucked away in atmospheric Dockland streets reminiscent of Prohibition-era New York. And like many of New York's hottest bars today, Elude is reservation only, which completes the atmosphere of exclusivity. Step in out of the cold, and Elude is all warmth and light with a lavish interior and an intimate ambience. Relax on a sofa, kick back to an exquisite soundtrack of super-cool chill-out music, soul, jazz and funk. Order a drink and examine the menu at leisure, making your choice from an excellent range of Modern European dishes, prepared by Elude's Head Chef, Shaun Kramer, using only fresh produce and the best locally sourced Meats and Seafood. We'd especially recommend hand-dived queen scallops with fresh spinach salsa, dressed with lime and chili, then French duck breast served with braised red cabbage, swede mash and orange jus - and for dessert, homemade chocolate fondant with fresh vanilla ice-cream and cassis. Elude's cosy and exquisite ground floor bar is perfect for a pre- or post-dinner drink and is also open to non-diners who create a buzzing bar culture every weekend. This is a great place to book for a special occasion or function - in fact Elude can cater for up to 100 people, with both the restaurant and bar available for exclusive private hire.

Atmospheric, intimate - and with a real hide-away sense of discovery - this is a cool venue that's attracting Liverpool's hippest crowd.
